

Have a tax problem you haven't been able to resolve with the IRS? The Taxpayer Advocate Service will assist taxpayers in person at its upcoming

Problem Solving Day

What: TAS Problem Solving Day at the New York University's 11th Annual Tax Controversy Forum

Where: The Crown Plaza Times Square Manhattan, New York

When: June 20-21, 2019

Partners: New York University; Kostelanetz & Fink, LLP and Agostino & Associates, PC

The Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) will be available to assist practitioners in person with client tax problems they have not been able to resolve with the IRS. Our goal is to provide one to one guidance, direction on next steps, and case building ideas so you can help your clients. If your client's problem meets our criteria, we'll assign a Case Advocate to work with you to resolve your client's issue.

The Manhattan Taxpayer Advocate Service offices will be available during the event to assist practitioners with unresolved IRS tax issues.

Guest speakers include Charles P. Rettig, Esq., Commissioner, Internal Revenue Service (invited), Michael J. Desmond, Esq., Chief Counsel, Internal Revenue Service, Nina E. Olson, National Taxpayer Advocate, Internal Revenue Service; The Honorable Maurice B. Foley, Chief Judge, United States Tax Court; Don Fort, Chief, IRS Criminal Investigation. Hear discussions on the latest tax issues critical to tax specialists.

The Taxpayer Advocate Service is an independent organization within the Internal Revenue Service that helps taxpayers and protects taxpayer rights. We help taxpayers whose problems with the IRS are causing financial difficulties, who've tried but haven't been able to resolve their problems with the IRS, or believe an IRS system or procedure isn't working as it should. And our service is free.
